

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO ALL STUDENTS INTERESTED IN APPLYING TO THE NURSING PROGRAM

In order to obtain an application to the Nursing Program- Basic Two Year Program- Weekday and Evening/Weekend Program and RN Completion for Paramedics program, a student must attend a mandatory meeting orienting students to the admission requirements and application process. See dates and times for availability for meetings. Students do not need to make an appointment to attend the mandatory meeting but must attend the entire one hour session in order to obtain an application to the program. Questions or concerns are welcome during these sessions. All meetings are presented by Nursing Faculty.

Separate mandatory meetings are provided for Licensed Practical Nurses (LPN) seeking advanced standing admission- see the Stark State College website for dates and times for these meetings.

Effective January 1, 2010, only applications obtained at mandatory meetings conducted during the fall semester, 2009 will be accepted for application to the Nursing Program.
