

What is the Computer Skills Test?

The Computer Skills Test is a supplemental assessment used during the Stark State College testing process to evaluate your foundational technology knowledge. The primary goal is to ensure you are placed in the computer course level that best matches your current skill set.

What to Expect

- Question Format: The assessment consists of multiple-choice questions.
- Competency Areas: You will be tested on the topics below.

Operating System

Secure password

File Extension

File Name

Copy

Cut Paste

Malicious software terms

Identify parts of a URL

Identify different types of storage on and off the computer

Folders

File organization

Select Multiple Files

Recycle Bin/Trash

Hazards for unsecured wireless network

Maximize

Restore Down

Temporary holding area in your computer's memory

A network of interlined web pages

Output devices versus input devices

Applications Software